31st of July, 1775, Colonel David Pye wrote from Clarks-town to the Provincial Congress of New York as follows:

"The bearer hereof, Captain Robert Johnson, has his company now full, and as he is a sum of money out by this, I take the liberty to recommend him to you for direction when he may have the necessary supplies for his company."

Subsequent records show that the supplies were furnished, and before the close of the war these troops rendered good service in the cause of their country.

On the 17th of July, 1775, the most important meeting ever held in this locality took place, probably at the Yoast Mabie House. At this meeting every man was called on to declare his allegiance to the cause of liberty, or be reckoned among the enemies of his country. The meeting was called to consider the following:

"General Association adopted by freemen, freeholders, and inhabitants of the city and county of New York, on Saturday the 29th of April, 1775, and transmitted for signing to all the counties in the province:

"Persuaded that the salvation of the rights and liberties of America depends, under God, on the firm union of its inhabitants in a vigorous prosecution of the measures necessary for its safety, and convinced of the necessity of preventing the anarchy and confusion which attend the dissolution of the powers of the government, we, the freemen, freeholders, and inhabitants of Orange Town, being greatly alarmed at the avowed design of the ministry to raise a revenue in America, and shocked by the bloody scenes now acting in the Massachusetts Bay, do, in the most solemn manner, resolve never to become slaves; and do associate under all the ties of religion, honor, and love to our country, to adopt and endeavor to carry into execution whatever measures may be recommended by the Continental Congress, or resolved upon by our Provincial Convention, for the purpose of preserving our constitution, and opposing the execution of the several arbitrary and oppressive acts of the British Parliament until a reconciliation between Great Britain and America, on constitutional principles (which we most ardently desire), can be obtained; and that we will in all things follow the advice of our general committee respecting the purposes aforesaid, the preservation of peace and good order, and the safety of individuals and private property.

"Signed by Daniel Lawrence, David Aljea, David Lawrence, Albert Aljea, Edward Briggs, Garret Blauvelt, Kasparius Conklin, Avery Campbell, Ram Boll, Abraham Conklin, James Jacklin, Spedwell Jacklin, Nathaniel Lawrence, Abraham Post, Jacob Wilfer, Michael Cornelison, Jacobus De Clark, William Martin, Daniel Vorhees, Abraham Onderdonk, Jones Torrell, Abraham Tallman jr., Daniel Onderdonk, Jacob Conklin, William Bell jr., Abraham Mabie, Garret Ackerson, Harman Tallman jr., Peter Retan, John Westervelt, Johannes Vanhuten, Harman Tallman, John Rycher, Jacob Ackerson, Adrean Onderdonk, Conrad Gravenstine, Abraham Mabie jr., John Gissenar jr.

"Orange Town, July 17th, 1775.
"These are to certify that each and every one of the persons hereinafter named, inhabitants of the town of Orange, and every one of them of full age, have refused and neglected to sign the General Association.
